Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Stephan Reinhardt, oct. 2016) : Baudry's 2013 Chinon offers a pure and fruity nose with cherry aromas intertwined with some flinty or crystalline aromas. Still a bit reductive. On the palate this is a tightly structured, though just ripe red that doesn't fill the mouth with the generosity of a really ripe year. It is a bit meager, but still full of character.
