Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, déc. 2016) : 89/100. Cedar, white pepper, cured meats and mulled red and black fruits define Yves' 2014 Côte Rôtie Terres Sombres (750 cases) and this medium-bodied, fresh, even juicy effort has fine tannin, solid mid-palate depth and a good finish. It's certainly made in a fresher style and I think has a touch too much acidity, but it is a charming effort that will keep for a decade. Drink 2016-2026.
