Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate - Neal Martin (aout 2016) : 90/100. The 2014 Chablis Villages is the same blend as the 2013 except it includes additional parcels belonging to Samuel Billaud. It has an austere, backward nose that is very well defined, a strict and laconic bouquet that draws you in. The palate is very precise and bounding with energy, not complex but with very satisfying weight in the mouth. This has good potential, more so than the 2013.
