Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, oct 2014) : Only the second vintage for the cuvee, the 2012 Châteauneuf du Pape Piedlong is a rocking blend of 90% Grenache and 10% Mourvedre, fermented with a hefty chunk of whole clusters, that was brought up all in larger foudre. Giving up loads of kirsch, strawberry, dried soil, flowers and hints of meatiness, this classic Grenache is medium to full-bodied, ripe and textured, yet remarkably focused and fresh. While the acidity here is relatively low, it has plenty of fine tannin that keep it focused. Drink this beauty over the coming decade
