Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, oct 2016) : 92/100 "A seriously good 2014 that's always a mix of equal parts Grenache and Syrah, the 2014 Cotes du Ventoux Cuvee Artemia was showing beautifully on this occasion, even though it had just been bottled a few weeks ago. Possessing a finesse-driven, elegant, moderately concentrated, yet sexy style, with tons of black raspberry, violets and spice, it's ideal for drinking in its youth while you wait on the more structured, concentrated vintages to get some bottle age." Drink date 2016-2023
