Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, Dec 2016) : 88/100. The 2014 Côtes du Rhône Villages Tradition is also noteworthy. Made from 50% Grenache, 25% Syrah and 25% Carignan, aged all in concrete tanks, it's a classy, elegant effort that offers plenty of white pepper, garrigue and red and black fruit aromas and flavors. It's impeccably balanced and has solid length, all suggesting it will evolve nicely for 3-4 years. Drink date 2016-2020.
