Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, déc. 2016) : 90-92/100. As to the reds, Chatagnier's 2015s were impressive across the board. The 2015 Côte Rôtie showed a touch of volatile acidity, yet has beautiful purity and depth on the palate. Peach pit, dried spices, plums and violets all emerge from this promising, medium to full-bodied barrel sample that should benefit from short-term cellaring. This was another fine lineup from the young Aurélien Chatagnier, who pulls mostly from vines in the northern part of St Joseph. His wines shine more for complexity and finesse than overt power and richness.
