Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin, Déc. 2016) : 88-90/100. The 2015 Maranges 1er Cru la Fussiere Blanc felt a little conservative on the nose and perhaps did not quite convey the same level of mineralité as the Santenay Village Blanc. The palate ups the game with lime, cooking apple and a touch of peach skin. The acidity is nicely judged and there is good persistence on the finish, although at the moment I feel that this is just holding itself back, not fully letting go. Let's see how it performs once in bottle. Drink date 2018-2027.
