Product short description:

Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (William Kelley, août 2019) : 90/100. The 2018 Morgon saw a small sulfur dioxide addition just before bottling, and while it exhibits similar aromas of cherries, berries and rose petals, it's a bit more reserved on the palate, with a touch less immediate flesh on its medium to full-bodied frame and its powdery tannins a little more prominent. I suspect that after another six months the two bottlings will be indistinguishable. Drink date 2019-2029.
