

Domaine Stephane Ogier "Viognier de Rosine" white 2019

€114.00

Area: NORTHERN RHONE
Winemaker: Stéphane Ogier
Vintage: 2019
Appellation: IGP collines Rhodaniennes
Color: dry white
Unit Price: 15-20 €
Size: 75cl
organic or not: sustainable agriculture
Cuvee: Viognier de Rosine
Wine Advocate (Parker): 91/100
Cépage dominant: viognier

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Joe Czerwinski, mai 2021) : 91/100. *The honeyed, apricot-scented 2019 IGP Collines Rhodaniennes Viognier de Rosine is a terrific representation of what can be a finicky grape variety. There's some toasty oak influence, but it's in balance with the wine's effusive ripeness and subdued florals. Medium to full-bodied, with a silky mouthfeel and lingering finish, this is my favorite Rosine to date. Drink date 2021-2024.