Product short description:

97/100 RVF. The largest cuvée of the domaine Cosse-Maisonneuve made from malbec, although the "little" newcomer, Sidérolithe, 100% cabernet franc, will likely overshadow it in the future! The 2018 vintage is an exceptional vintage in Cahors.

Domaine Cosse-Maisonneuve Cahors "La Marguerite" red 2018

RVF Guide to the Best Wines of France 2022 : Favorite 96/100. Massal selections of Malbec planted on a clay pocket create the powerful sensuality of this cuvée bursting with sap, with a strength that is integrated into an expanding mass. The superb, intelligent, bordering, tight, elegant tannin gives this high-flying cuvée all the desired dynamism. A great wine for aging, it possesses all the qualities of the best reds of the moment.

RVF Guide to the Best Wines of France 2021 : Favorite 97/100. The sensuality is at its peak. Intense and indulgent power on a nearly saline palate with hints of graphite and grainy, almost sandy tannin, fresh and mentholated. A great bottle for aging.

Technical sheet written by the domaine :

La Marguerite is a micro cuvée from a specific parcel that has been produced only since 2011, with a yield of just 2000 bottles.

Grape variety: 100% Malbec

Age of the vines: 10 years

A dual wine, both extremely silky and incredibly powerful, with remarkable concentration that is not excessive, focusing primarily on finesse. An exceptional purity of fruit (blackberry, blueberry, licorice) and an almost limitless aging potential!
