Product short description:

98/100 RVF. The largest cuvée of the domaine Cosse-Maisonneuve in malbec, although the "little" newcomer, Sidérolithe, 100% cabernet franc, will likely overshadow it a bit in the future!

Domaine Cosse-Maisonneuve Cahors "La Marguerite" red 2019

RVF Guide to the Best Wines of France 2023 (Sept. 2022): 98/100. To conclude the range, La Marguerite 2019 unfolds a bouquet where flowers and fruits intertwine, a note of tobacco leaf, and this intense sensation of graphite that marks the birth of each vintage from this extraordinary terroir of red clays and iron minerals, the siderolithic.

Attention: a wine for aging still very young in 2022, we advise you to wait a few more years before opening it.

Technical sheet written by the domaine:

La Marguerite is a micro cuvée produced only since 2011, with just 2000 bottles made.

Grape variety: 100% Malbec

Age of the vines: 10 years

A dual wine, both extremely silky and incredibly powerful, with remarkable concentration that is not excessive, focusing primarily on finesse. An exceptional purity of fruit (blackberry, blueberry, licorice) and an almost limitless aging potential!
