Technical Sheet written by the domaine :

A Chablis of seduction, elegance, and harmony

---

Grape variety: Chardonnay

Exposure: South / Southeast

Geology: Kimmeridgian

Age of the vines: 35 to 45 years

Aging: In tanks

Cellaring: To be enjoyed within 3 to 5 years

Serving temperature: 10 to 12° as an aperitif or for the pleasure of tasting, 12 to 13° with food.

TASTING:

Appearance: Very beautiful pale yellow gold color with slight green reflections. Bright, luminous, and clear.

On the nose: It is rich, dense, and ripe, revealing baked apple, brioche, then spices, thyme, and white pepper, before giving way to lovely floral and herbal notes, lemongrass, acacia, hawthorn...

On the palate: It is opulent and complex, offering a beautiful balance between freshness and finesse, roundness, softness, and volume. The finish is rich with this fruity, spicy, and floral ensemble, then fades to leave us with purity and elegance.

Food pairings: Hot and cold oysters, scallop skewers, crayfish court bouillon with Chablis, pike with chervil butter, Bresse chicken in creamy sauce, characterful cheeses, sorbets, and petits fours...
