Product short description:

The great cuvée of the domaine receives the best care both in the vineyard and in the cellar, with a 12-month aging in barrels made from the finest oak, well-deserved to enhance the elegance of the tannins as well as the aromas already well-present thanks to the significant temperature variations of the terroir in the southern Pic Saint-Loup.

Technical sheet written by the domaine

Tasting comments: The color is dark garnet. A nose of sweet spices (paprika), menthol, and garrigue. A beautiful, ample, and structured attack. The palate is dense without aggression. The finish is long. This elegant wine can accompany a roast beef and tuna with wine sauce.

Terroir: southern area of Pic St Loup

Soils: limestone, conglomerates of rolled pebbles, northwest slopes, sunset.

Climate: great thermal amplitude, with cool nights.

Grapes: syrah (70%), grenache noir (30%)

Age of the vines: between 30 and 50 years

Density: 5000 to 6200 plants/ha.

Yield: 25 hl/ha.

Vinification:

Traditional vinification with punching down and gentle extraction. Aging for one year in new barrels (30%) and 2 or 3 wines, mainly Atelier Centre France steamed.
