Domaine Nicolas Perrault Maranges 1er Cru "Les Loyères" red 2023

Technical Sheet written by the domaine:

Grape variety: 100% pinot noir

Vine and soils: 48-year-old vines located on limestone soils on a mid-slope, giving rise to wines with a strong personality while remaining quite subtle.

Vinification: It is vinified with 70% whole-cluster fermentation.

Aging: 12 months in oak barrels, followed by 6 months in large casks for final harmonization.

Composed of 70% whole-cluster fermentation, this wine reveals a cooler and more refined terroir. Its elite and complex personality offers a rich aromatic profile, combining spicy notes with aromas of dark fruits and a beautiful mineral tension. The aging follows the same modalities as the other 1er Crus of the domaine, 12 months in 228L barrels (25% new) followed by six months in large casks.

Food and wine pairings: Ideal with duck confit, roasted quail, or mushroom risotto.
