Product short description:

The Saint-Joseph that everyone dreams of: a young winemaker full of talent who has nothing to envy from the best in the region, a burgeoning reputation within a select circle of discerning enthusiasts. This cuvée of prestige (born with the 2016 vintage), a masterful blend of the best barrels, is set to become essential just like its now "little sister": La Sybarite. WARNING: barely bottled in September 2025, this wine deserves at least a year of patience; it is currently quite closed off, but has all the qualities to become a truly great bottle over time!

Domaine Aurélien Chatagnier Saint-Joseph "Zélée" red 2023

Winemaker's comment: For this cuvée, I aimed to combine finesse and elegance. Zélée is a wine for aging with fine and elegant tannins.

Technical sheet written by the domaine:

Grape variety: Syrah

Blend: 100% syrah from several plots of old vines, around thirty years old, from 3 municipalities: Ardoix, Charnas, Limony. They are located on granitic soils, facing south/southeast.

Aging: For this year, there are 90% new barrels. "It just happens this way this year, but it may change from year to year" says the winemaker.
