Product short description:

94/100 B+D. "The other Coteau de Noiré"... The vines of this parcel were a bit too young, but their potential was such that the winemakers warned us: "one day you will see". With each new vintage, this cuvée amazes us a little more... and its price is getting closer to the illustrious Coteau, its elder... But we are still far from the prices of other great cabernet francs from the Loire, and we should take advantage of it. Still too young in 2025, best to forget it in the cellar for a few years if possible.

+ ALL ITS OTHER CUVÉES IN STOCK

Attention: The wines signed by Philippe Alliet all deserve a decanting a few hours before tasting, as the low level of sulfur used during vinification can sometimes lead to reduction upon opening the bottle (unpleasant aromas of cabbage, rotten egg), which of course dissipates with aeration.

Guide Bettane + Desseauve 2026 (August 2025): 94/100. L'Huisserie increases in intensity with each vintage.

Technical sheet:

L'Huisserie is made from clay and flint soils, with relatively young vines. Aged 10% in new barrels, it will be easy to enjoy quickly, although it has all the character to age for 5 to 10 years.
