Product short description:

96/100 B+D. Undoubtedly the greatest cuvée of Chinon at the moment, perhaps alongside the Croix Boissée from Bernard Baudry. Be cautious, this is a great wine for aging; it would be a shame to taste it too early. Still too young in 2025, best to forget it in the cellar for a few years if possible.

Attention:

The wines signed by Philippe Alliet all deserve a decanting a few hours before tasting, as the low level of sulfur used during vinification sometimes promotes the phenomenon of reduction upon opening the bottle (unpleasant aromas of cabbage, rotten egg), which of course disappears with aeration.
