Comments on this

Domaine Muré Riesling "Calcaires Jaunes" dry white 2023

Tasting comments from the domaine : "On the palate, there is a round freshness, marked by hints of hay flowers and juicy, ripe apple, accented with a touch of dried lemon zest. The overall impression is smooth, juicy, dry, while maintaining a mineral freshness typical of limestone." Wine Enthusiast

Technical sheet written by the domaine

This wine is made from purchased grapes in collaboration with local winemakers.

Grapes: Riesling (100%)

Terroir: The vines are planted in the Rouffach region.

The vine: The Calcaires Jaunes refer to the yellow limestone of Rouffach. This stone, well-known in the region, was used in the construction of the church of Rouffach and the Collegiate Church of Saint Martin in Colmar. These limestone soils are well-suited for Riesling and enhance its minerality. It gives aromas of fruit (grapefruit, lemon) and delicate wines.

Average age of the vines: 25 years

Harvest: Manual in 20 kg crates

Fermentation: With indigenous yeasts and aging on fine lees

Harvest date: from October 1 to 6, 2023

Residual sugars: 3.8 grams / liter

Acidity: 6.9 grams / liter

Alcohol: 12.5 % / volume

Cellaring potential: Until 2030
