Product short description:

Favorite and 93/100 RVF. A Pessac-Léognan that breaks away from the standards of the appellation, not aged in oak barrels for easier enjoyment from its youth. All finesse and freshness with lovely notes of red fruits. A pure delight, with the complexity of the AOP Pessac-Léognan added in!

Château Haut-Bergey Pessac-Léognan "Cuvée Paul" red 2021

RVF Guide to the Best Wines of France 2026 (Sept. 2025). Favorite and 93/100. A favorite for the cuvée Paul 2021, detailed, concentrated (remarkably for the year) but harmonious above all. One could even speak of smoothness!

La Revue du Vin de France (Feb. 2026). 93/100. In white as in red, the Cuvée Paul is the most obvious and well-known illustration of Paul Garcin's approach at Haut-Bergey. By forgoing barrel aging, it reveals the fruit of these classic Léognan terroirs, allowing it to renew the intuition of immediate pleasure that the wines of the appellation can provide, while deepening the taste of the place through its very candor. Detailed, remarkably concentrated for the year (one could even speak of smoothness!), the Cuvée Paul 2021 in red asserts itself through its harmony.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Yohan Castaing, February 2024): 89/100. *The 2021 Cuvée Paul from Château Haut Bergey, matured for 14 months in stainless steel tanks, exhales a pretty, elegant bouquet with aromas of red berries, spices and flowers. Moderately weighted and juicy, it's round and bright with a mouthwatering finish. This is already an enjoyable wine, hailing from a notoriously challenging vintage, especially for this estate. Only 13,000 bottles were produced. Drink date 2023-2030.
