«The ancient domaine of the Dukes of Burgundy is neither the largest nor the most important wine region in the world. But it is by far one of the greatest in terms of quality. Nowhere else does wine integrate so much into daily life, and nowhere else is there such an honest love of wine or such pride in perfection.»

Alexis Lichine

Wines from winemakers, our Burgundies are so in many ways.

We are indeed proud of the choice of plots at the birth of the wine, accompanying these mosaics of terroirs. We are also proud to offer enthusiasts wines that we, winemakers, appreciate, especially during meals among friends, accomplices of simple and friendly cuisine. Our taste buds awaken at the thought of the traditional harvest snack where all together, we start the parsley ham and goat cheeses accompanied by our Bourgogne Blanc. These beautiful Chardonnay grapes, the substance of our Bourgogne blanc, ripen on two terroirs located in the municipality of Marsannay: En Auvonne and En Varangée. Well-drained, well-exposed, the two soils, quite similar in structure, loamy and clay-limestone, present on the surface multiple small pebbles returning the accumulated energy. From this wine, we will also draw our energy, to "hold our ordon" and cut our grapes!

Wines from winemakers, our Burgundies intrinsically carry the expertise of each, the pride of fine craftsmanship, and the finest expression of their terroir possible.
