Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin, juin 2015): The 2014 Brouilly Cuvee Vieilles Vignes, which undergoes exactly the same vinification as the Beaujolais Villages, has a wonderful nose of blackberry, briary wild hedgerow and hints of dried violet petals. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy red fruit mixed with licorice on the entry. There are fine tannins underpinning this Brouilly, and though it feels a little clammed up on the finish so close to bottling, it is very elegant and composed. 92/100. Drink 2015-2025.
