Domaine Sant Armettu Myrtus blanc sec 2023

RVF Guide to the Best Wines of France 2026 (Sept. 2025): 93/100. Brilliant gold. Myrtus blanc expresses the purity of vermentinu, complemented by a touch of genovese, a beautiful burst of minerality, a floral imprint that perfumes the whole, and a fine oak that fits well with a finish on flavors of orgeat. A remarkable bottle for its harmony and mouthfeel, to be enjoyed over five years and more.

Technical Sheet written by the domaine:

Myrtus blanc adopts a lovely lemony hue with beautiful golden reflections. On the nose, one can distinguish notes of white flowers and slight exotic fruits that blend perfectly together. The full range of these aromas will be found on a beautiful length in the mouth. Over time, Myrtus blanc will evolve into more petrol-like notes that are equally interesting.

TERROIR: The slopes of Tizzano composed of clay-granite arenas.

GRAPE VARIETY: 90% Vermentinu, 10% Genovese.

HARVEST: Fermentation in demi-muids.

AGING: 12 months in demi-muids on full lees.

COLOR: Lemon yellow with golden reflections.

TASTING: Imposing and fresh, with appetizing bitterness that will age beautifully. Generous and seductive, Myrtus will be appreciated at elegant and consensual dinners.

TEXT FROM THE BACK LABEL : Myrtus, Myrte in Latin, is a unique being that believes the table is the best remedy. Offer it an elegant dinner, and it will surely bring everyone together.
