Les Vignes Oubliées white 2024

IMPORTANT AESTHETIC PRECISION: the bottles do not have a capsule on the neck. The winemaker, like more and more of his colleagues, emphasizes the fact that capsules are not easily recyclable, and since modern corks perfectly protect the wine, the capsule is now just aesthetic... so the artist decided: no more capsule!

Technical sheet written by the domaine:

Tasting advice from the winemaker: open 1 hour before serving, aging potential 5 to 8 years.

Terroirs:

Sandstone and schist testify to the diversity offered by the Terrasses du Larzac and especially for this cuvée, the commune of Saint Privat

Cultivation method:

Traditional cultivation accompanying the gradual cessation of herbicides and synthetic molecules, short pruning, heart debudding, manual harvest...

Grape varieties:

Clairette, Roussanne, Carignan, and Grenache Blanc.

Vinification:

Work guided by the desire to respect the fruit and freshness that the terroir gives us. Sorting in the vineyard and cellar, pneumatic pressing, and temperature control remain the B.a.-ba of our action.

Tasting:

White fruits, white flowers, citrus fruits, and some toasted touches form a beautiful fresh, balanced, and rich ensemble. The whites and St Privat indeed have a future together!

Service:

A serving temperature of 10°C allows full appreciation of this cuvée.
