Domaine Sylvain Pataille Marsannay "Le Chapitre" white 2019

Note, in order to limit the addition of the preservative sulfur (SO₂) at the time of bottling, Sylvain Pataille may intentionally leave "too much" CO₂ (natural, resulting from alcoholic fermentation, with no influence on the wine) to protect the wine from oxidation. Feel free to decant this cuvée and then let it rest in a decanter until the excess gas (which can make the wine borderline sparkling, but totally neutral!) escapes.

Technical sheet written by the domaine:
