Product short description:

The Saint-Joseph everyone dreams of: a young winemaker full of talent who has nothing to envy from the best in the region, with a burgeoning reputation among a select group of discerning enthusiasts. This prestigious cuvée (born with the 2016 vintage), a skillful blend of the best barrels, is set to become essential just like its now "little sister": La Sybarite. Note, these rich 2022s are still very (too much for our taste) young in 2024, the date of their release from the winemaker's cellars. They will be magnificent, but later :-)

Domaine Aurélien Chatagnier Saint-Joseph "Zélée" red 2022

Winemaker's comment: For this cuvée, I sought to combine finesse and elegance. Zélée is an aging wine with fine and elegant tannins.

Technical sheet written by the domaine:

Grape variety: Syrah

Blend: 100% Syrah from several plots of vieilles vignes, about thirty years old, in 3 communes: Ardoix, Charnas, Limony. They are located on granite soils, facing south/southeast.

Aging: For this year, there are 90% new barrels. "That's how it is this year, but it could change from year to year" says the winemaker.
