Technical sheet written by the domaine :

The name of this cuvée is inspired by its musical definition:

A White Label is a vinyl record pressed in very limited quantities and self-produced. Its distribution is reserved for a few insiders who play the piece in advance for the public. According to this idea, this cuvée, which is outside the range, allows us to explore new avenues.

This is our blank page that we can rewrite with each vintage, our experimental cuvée.
