Product short description:

A cuvée for pleasure and sharing from Milan, a leading name in southern—and organic—winegrowing and, for us, a potential successor to domaine Hauvette at far lower prices. Léon was born in the Alpilles, the new El Dorado for fine southern wines. A “house” blend sourced mainly from the 2025 vintage, but not exclusively. The winemaker is highly meticulous!

Technical sheet written by the domaine:

An in-house blend made primarily from the 2025 vintage.

Soil type: Clay-loam, rounded pebbles

Grape varieties: Syrah, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Mourvèdre

Vinification / ageing: Hand-harvested in 15 kg crates. Destemming, vatting and crushing of the grapes.

Gentle extraction through short daily pump-overs. Alcoholic fermentation in stainless steel tanks, grape variety by grape variety, at controlled temperature. Three-week maceration.

Ageing in tank (50%) and oak barrels (50%) for 18 months.

Tasting notes: A deep colour, with notes of violet and spice on the nose. The palate is smooth, carried by supple tannins and generous fruit with roasted nuances. A cuvée made for pleasure and sharing.
